

From left, winners including Sir Ian McKellen, Sir Patrick Stewart, Owen Teale, Damien Molony, Sean Mathias, John Malkovich, Glenn Close, Lord Andrew Lloyd Webber, Tyrone Huntley, Charlene James, Gareth Fry, Billie Piper, Pete Malkin, Ralph Fiennes, Sir Kenneth Branagh, Joe Robertson and Joe Murphy pose on stage at the 62nd London Evening Standard Theatre Awards after-party at The Old Vic Theatre on 13 November.

WINNERS

Best Actor

Ralph Fiennes

The Master Builder (Old Vic)
Richard III (Almeida)

Evening Standard Radio 2 Audience Award for Best Musical

Jesus Christ Superstar

(Regent's Park Open Air Theatre)

Best Revival

No Man's Land

Wyndham's (dir Sean Mathias)

Natasha Richardson Award for Best Actress

Billie Piper

Yerma (Young Vic)

Milton Shulman Award for Best Director

John Malkovich

Good Canary (Rose Theatre Kingston)

Best Design

Gareth Fry with Pete Malkin
(sound design)

The Encounter (Edinburgh International Festival/Barbican)

Evening Standard

Theatre Awards Best Play with Hiscox, official arts partner of the Evening Standard

Harry Potter and the Cursed Child

by Jack Thorne, JK Rowling and John Tiffany (Palace)

Emerging Talent Award

in partnership with Burberry

Tyrone Huntley

Jesus Christ Superstar
(Regent's Park Open Air Theatre)

Lebedev Award

Sir Kenneth Branagh

Best Musical Performance

Glenn Close

Sunset Boulevard (Coliseum)

Charles Wintour Award for Most Promising Playwright

Charlene James

Cuttin' It (Young Vic/Royal Court/Yard)

Beyond Theatre Award
Sir David Attenborough

Editor's Award

The Good Chance Theatre

The London Evening Standard thanks our sponsors Burberry and Hiscox

We ate: beetroot with thyme goat's cheese, wild nasturtium, pine nut dressing; ash-coated beef fillet, heritage carrots and truffled potato galette

We drank: Laurent-Perrier Champagne Brut NV

With thanks to Audi, Beluga Vodka and Pulbrook & Gould at Thomas Goode